What happens next?

All applications, including references, undergo technical and academic reviews. Candidates who satisfy all requirements will be interviewed by the U.S. Embassy Fulbright Selection Committee. The Committee will submit the names of the selected finalists to the Fulbright Board of Foreign Scholarships in the United States for final approval. Selected grantees will be notified of final approval when their affiliations at U.S. universities are confirmed in June 2023 and funding is available.

For more information on the program, please visit the Fulbright Visiting (Non-U.S.) Scholar Program page: https://www.cies.org/programs.

For questions that have not been covered on the website and in this announcement, please email us at YerevanFulbright@state.gov.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

• What are the selection criteria?  The following factors are considered: professional qualifications, research proposal (quality, feasibility), how the acquired knowledge will be used upon return, English language competence, need for the project to be undertaken in the United States, and quality of references. Preference will be given to candidates with little or no previous experience in the United States.

• What are the basic benefits included in the scholarship?  Round trip international airfare, monthly stipend, book allowance, and a settling-in allowance, and participation in Fulbright enrichment activities.

• Can family members accompany me?  Yes, but you will be financially responsible for them.

• Do I have to arrange university placement in the United States?  It is recommended but not required that you submit a letter of invitation from a U.S. university in your application package. If you don’t know where your project can be conducted, the research affiliation will be arranged by one of the Fulbright administering agencies.

• How should I provide my references?  References should be provided online together with your application. A request for a reference letter is sent to the recommender through the online system and is received by the program coordinator at the U.S. Embassy. You will receive a notification when the recommendation letter is submitted.

• How should I electronically sign the application?  Please enter your name under “Electronic Signature.”

• Am I required to provide supplemental forms?  No additional forms are mandatory at the initial stage, and there is no need to bring any printed documents to the Embassy.

• The application form requires that I contact the Embassy before starting the online application. Is this requirement strict?  No, it is not necessary to contact the Embassy to start the application.
